1) In G.O. No. Fl 3122-3211 /S.A-189-4 d 16-11-1940 ~~enhancing~~ the minimum daily allowance of officers in superior and inferior service coming under clause VI and VII of Ark 479 has been raised from annas four to annas six. But in the order forth the qualifying clause, that it is raised in respect of hills all all district and Taluk HQ quarters and D.E.S. have given room for some doubt in respect of the D.A. to be claimed dur the period of the journey undertaken by the menials as according to ~~mss~~ they are entitled to D.A. for the days on which the journey is undertaken.

2) As this has created some doubt and confusion for the administrative departments in claiming the D.A in such cases it is respectfully submitted ~~to~~ for kind orders as to the rate of D.A to be allowed in such cases.

3) In the case of Messengers sent from this office a minimum ~~of~~ D.A. of a0 4/ was being claimed for the days of journey in the order was raised. As the minimum D.A. was raised to annas six, the D.A. for the days of the journey has been claimed at this rate; bu it is informally learnt from the audit office that they feel a doubt to admit this claim.

The matter may therefore be kindly referred to the audit Branch for the correct interpretation
